The Kreider Family

Marianne and Richard (79') grew up around the block from one another in Hauppauge and their first date was at a Saint Anthony's dance while he was a sophomore and Marianne was a freshman at Hauppauge High School. Richard attended Villanova University where he received a BS in Accounting and then attended NYU where he received his Master's Degree in Finance. He spent three years in public accounting at Deloitte Haskins + Sells and recently retired from Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. after thirty-five years. Marianne attended SUNY Stony Brook and has dedicated her life to raising five children and seven grandchildren.

Their oldest daughter, Kristen, attended Villanova University where she graduated with a BS in Nursing and went on to receive her Master's in Nursing from Long Island University. She has three children, Kayla, Alexis and Nicholas.

Their second daughter, Kelly attended Villanova and received a BS in Criminal Justice and a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from John Jay College. With a career change she graduated from Molloy College in 2018 with a BS in Nursing. Kelly is currently working at Saint Anthony's as one of its nurses. Her husband Kyle Globuschutz graduated from SUNY Albany with a BA in Psychology and received his Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree from SUNY Stony Brook. Together they have two children, Kylie and Luca.

Their daughter Michelle received a BA and a Master's in Elementary Education from St. Joseph's College in Patchogue. Her husband Steven Berry has a BS in Securities Systems from Farmingdale and a Master's in Information Technology Management from Colorado State. Together they have two children, Jack and Kate, with a third due in the beginning of October. Their two sons, Kevin and Brian graduated from Saint Anthony's in 2012 and 2014, respectively. Kevin attended High Point University where he met his wife, Halley. Kevin received a BA in Business Administration and Halley received a BS in Biology, and went on to receive a BS in Diagnostic Medical Sonography from Rutgers University.

Brian attended Villanova University and graduated with a BS in Accounting.

The Kreider's have been involved with Saint Anthony's for many years. They are supporters of the Catholic mission of service and education for all, with a focus on healthcare and vulnerable populations. More recently Richard became involved with the Business & Entrepreneurship Center and hopes to share some of his career experiences at the Center.
